

EAST #103

Well Brethren -- we are off to kind of a rough start for 2017.... weather has been a real problem . I know from the EA degree that I (and probably most everyone else) need to have a few PRACTICES!!!!!!!!!!!! I feel bad that it was so rough but the candidate didn't even notice it and said it was great.

Hopefully the weather will turn around and we can get back "on track" .

OFFICERS please be ready to show up for PRACTICE when we get one scheduled !!!!!

We have lost another Brother -- Brother Dave Link passed away January 9 and a lot of others have been sick --- keep everyone in your prayers please !!

We have had one VISITATION so far and Kent will schedule more later . Thanks for supporting this .

On the Level,
Jim Pringle - WM

ASHLAND #23

Brethren. Good tidings from the East.

I hope the new year is treating each and every one of you well. I would like to start by saying, I have seen a number of articles on the Internet over the past few months that have lamented the loss of movie icons, musical legends and sports stars. While I too have appreciated their contributions to our culture, none of these individuals had a personal impact on my life. However, two members of our Lodge that we lost this past year, did.

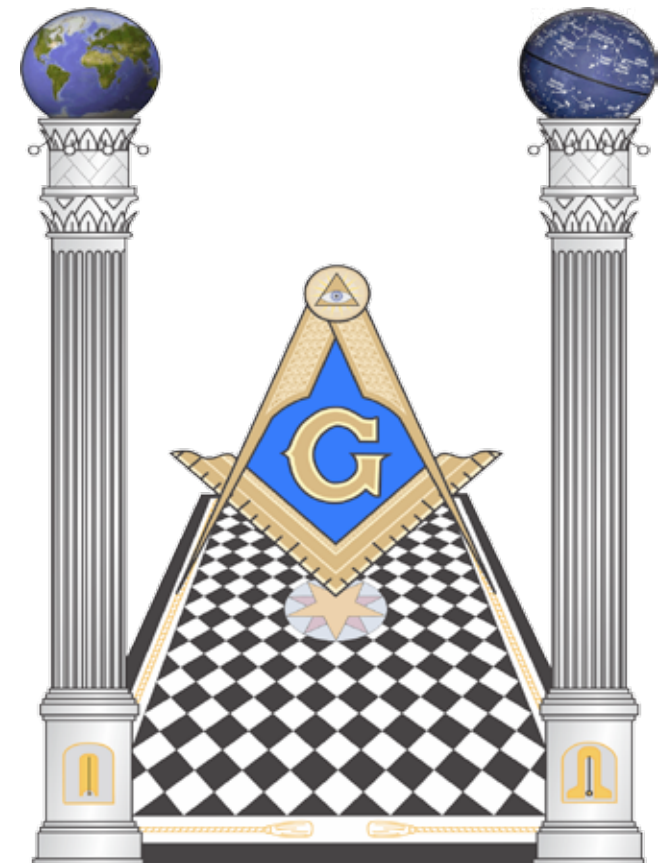

These are the losses that affected me the most. Good men with good hearts. Brother Ron Armstrong and Brother Carl Levi both passed to that celestial temple not created by human hands this past year. Both men brought a spirit of brotherly love to our Lodge and they will surely be missed. I was fortunate to witness the making of Brother Armstrong an Honorary Past Master of this Lodge and Brother Carl Levi the recipient of the Hiram Award. These two acts have cemented their legacy with this Lodge and they will forever be with me in spirit.

Brothers, take the time to let your fellow Masons know you appreciate their contributions. Also, let us not forget the widows that stood beside their husbands as they did their good work. They too remain important to us.

Lastly, I hope we can reach out to those Brothers that have been gone from the craft, to let them know they are important to us and have not been forgotten. I look forward to continuing the good and great work Sam Lupini and Skip Bessonette put forth the past three years. With the assistance of Mitch Klaich and Norm Rossignol, I am well on the way. Look well to the East.
